

KERALA - WHEN GODS & DEMONS MEET

You will sail to the venue in your barges and will be given a grand traditional welcome as you alight at the venue. You are welcomed by traditional Kerala drummers and 'Panchvadyam' (5 musical instruments) performers. The decorated elephants honor and welcome you with a traditional salute to indicate a great evening ahead. After welcome drinks, the spectacular Kathakali & Theyyam epic dance-dramas of Kerala which involve complex mime and elaborate make-up, very colorful and interesting, are showcased for you. You will also be able to see the intricate makeup being applied -- a fascinating spectacle. It is hard to get these artists to commit to what exactly they are going to do as this is part devotional, part improvised. You are encouraged to just sit back and be enthralled. It is followed by a modern and contemporary dance performance evolved from the traditional martial art form Kalari. While you enjoy a traditional Kerala Dinner elegantly laid out, a live fusion band plays to modern tunes.
